TURNING YOUR PAIN POINTS INTO RALLY POINTS

GUEST SPEAKER

Peter Lubembela

Peter Lubembela is the Founder and Chief Executive Officer for 10For10 and a 2021 graduate of Howard University. By way of the Nyarugusu Refugee Camp in Tanzania, moved to Colorado and graduated from Noel Community Arts High School (NCAS) at Montbello. At NCAS Peter was both a mentee and a mentor in the STARS Mentoring Program and served as SNC Intern and Staff, helping to make SNC a memorable and positive experience for all who attended. Peter is a servant leader with proven experience of engaging youth and elders in much needed conversations through his organization 10for10. He started 10for10 as a way to unite Black men but has since expanded the mission to be inclusive of women and all people of color. Through 10for10, Peter has led protests, rallies, marches, and service events that have fed thousands of people.

Peter aims to put young people at the forefront of the change taking place in our communities. While at Howard University, Peter was involved in the Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel, founded the Colorado Club to support students from Colorado and served as the President of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc., Alpha Chapter. Peter is passionate about uplifting and empowering minority voices and is an advocate for all of Colorado. He interned in Senator Michael Bennet's Capitol Hill office, is a Mayor's Ambassador for the City of Denver and is a recent awardee of the My Brother's Keeper 25 'Emerging Leaders' Award. Peter is driven by his passion for change in his community.

ABOUT OUR WORKSHOP

Morning and Afternoon Workshop Speaker – June 28

Learn to shift your internal struggle to an external fight to fix the issues around you. Discover and implement ideas that seek to serve.

FRIENDSFIRST
MENTORLIFE